INSTRUCTIONS TO PARTIES FOR COMPLETION OF EQUITABLE DISTRIBUTION AFFIDAVIT

1. READ THESE INSTRUCTIONS CAREFULLY. Your Affidavit must be fully and accurately prepared. Submission of this Affidavit is required by the Wake County Family Court Rules – Domestic. A copy of the Rules is available on the website for the North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts at <http://www.nccourts.org/Courts/CRS/Policies/LocalRules/Default.asp> . Please refer to Rule 11: “Equitable Distribution Claims” regarding the preparation of this Affidavit. If you are not represented by counsel, you should obtain a copy of the Domestic Rules so that you comply with them and assure that you do not prejudice your case. Your interests in this lawsuit will be harmed if your Affidavit does not contain all the information required and if that information is not accurate. If you are not represented by an attorney, the Wake County Family Court Rules – Domestic apply equally to you and it is your responsibility to fully comply with these instructions.
2. READ THE AFFIDAVIT FORM THOROUGHLY AND CAREFULLY. If you have any questions or are unsure how to list certain information, ask your attorney first so that your Affidavit will be complete and correct before it is placed in final typed form. Failure to fully comply with these instructions may result in sanctions being imposed against you by the Court.
3. The Affidavit, when served on the opposing party or attorney, must be typed and must substantially conform to this form. Your signature must be notarized.
4. With regard to the mechanics of filling out the Affidavit, on each page you need to complete the information asked for on each page, including writing in your Date of Marriage beside the “DOM” and writing in your Date of Separation beside “DOS”.
5. Each individual item must be listed separately. You must list the items under the appropriate categories as set forth in the “Schedules”. If you have additional property that needs to be listed on a particular schedule, please add additional pages as necessary to give complete information about your property. You may omit sections or categories of assets that are not included in your case.
6. The moving party must deliver, in person or by mail, a copy of the original, typed Equitable Distribution Affidavit on the attorney representing the opposing party or to the opposing party directly if he/she is representing him/herself no later than 20 days prior to the Final Pretrial Conference. The responding party shall serve his/her Equitable Distribution Affidavit within 10 days of receipt of the moving party’s Affidavit, but no later than 10 days prior to the Final Pretrial Conference. THIS DEADLINE IS IMPORTANT AND FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH THE DEADLINE MAY RESULT IN THE IMPOSITION OF SANCTIONS. This Affidavit should not be filed with the Court; however, the Certificate of Service, at the end of this document, shall be filed with the Court.
7. THIS AFFIDAVIT MUST BE COMPLETED BY BOTH PARTIES AND THE SAME FORM IS TO BE USED BY BOTH PARTIES. In addition to serving the opposing counsel (or party, if not represented) with a hard copy of the completed Affidavit via personal delivery or mail, the moving party must also submit a completed Affidavit to opposing counsel (or party, if not represented) electronically by e-mail or by service of a disk or CD, if an e-mail address is not known or available. The responding party must complete the Affidavit served by the moving party within the time prescribed by these instructions. Following completion, the responding party shall serve the moving party with a hard copy of the completed Affidavit via personal delivery or mail, as well as submitting the completed Affidavit electronically by e-mail or by service of a disk or CD, if an email address is not known or available.
8. The second party to serve their Affidavit must follow the same order of listing the assets as the original filing party and must list each item under the appropriate category as set forth in the “Schedules”. Rule 11 requires the moving party to submit an electronic copy of the completed Affidavit on the responding party. The responding party shall use this form and fill in his/her information in the appropriate categories. If the first party fails to list an asset/debt on their Affidavit, the second party would list the “missing” item at the bottom of the list, on that schedule. A failure to sequentially follow the classification scheme will result in the Court and counsel needlessly consuming time as they compare the Plaintiff’s and Defendant’s Affidavits for information containing the same asset. Under the “Contentions” section list out any information that you feel is relevant and should be considered by the Court regarding the asset/debt relating to the classification, value or distribution of each item of property or debt. (For example, if you claim the described property was purchased with your separate property.)
9. This Affidavit is intended to be a supplement to the Equitable Distribution Inventory previously prepared by the parties. Pursuant to Wake County Family Court Rule 11.7, a Final Equitable Distribution Affidavit, with both parties’ contentions shall be presented to the assigned Judge at the Final Pretrial Conference.

10. The following are the statutory definitions for “Marital”, “Separate”, and “Divisible” Assets:

- a. “Marital property” means all real and personal property acquired by either spouse or both spouses during the course of the marriage and before the date of the separation of the parties, and presently owned, except property determined to be separate property or divisible property. Marital property also includes all vested and nonvested pension, retirement, and other deferred compensation rights, and vested and nonvested military pensions eligible under the Federal Uniformed Services Former Spouses’ Protection Act. It is presumed that all property acquired after the date of marriage and before the date of separation is marital property except property which is separate property.
- b. “Separate property” means all real and personal property acquired by a spouse before marriage or acquired by a spouse by bequest, devise, descent, or gift during the course of the marriage. However, property acquired by gift from the other spouse during the course of the marriage shall be considered separate property only if such an intention is stated in the conveyance. Property acquired in exchange for separate property shall remain separate property regardless of whether the title is in the name of the husband or wife or both and shall not be considered to be marital property unless a contrary intention is expressly stated in the conveyance. The increase in value of separate property and the income derived from separate property shall be considered separate property. All professional licenses and business licenses which would terminate or transfer shall be considered separate property.
- c. “Divisible property” means all real and personal property as set forth below:
 - i. All appreciation and diminution in value of marital property and divisible property of the parties occurring after the date of separation and prior to the date of distribution, except that appreciation or diminution in value which is the result of postseparation actions or activities of a spouse shall not be treated as divisible property.
 - ii. All property, property rights, or any portion thereof received after the date of separation but before the date of distribution that was acquired as a result of the efforts of either spouse during the marriage and before the date of separation, including, but not limited to, commissions, bonuses, and contractual rights.
 - iii. Passive income from marital property received after the date of separation, including, but not limited to, interest and dividends.
 - iv. Increases in marital debt and financing charges and interest related to marital debt.

11. This Affidavit is comprised of six Schedules, titled: SCHEDULE I: MARITAL ASSETS; SCHEDULE II: MARITAL DEBTS; SCHEDULE III: SEPARATE ASSETS; SCHEDULE IV: SEPARATE DEBTS; SCHEDULE V: DIVISIBLE PROPERTY ACQUIRED AFTER DATE OF SEPARATION; and SCHEDULE VI: CONTENTIONS FOR UNEQUAL DISTRIBUTION.

The following is a list of abbreviations used in this Affidavit:

FMV: Fair Market Value
DOS: Date of Separation
DOM: Date of Marriage
H: Husband
W: Wife

M: Marital Property
S: Separate Property
Jt: Joint (as in joint names listed on a title)
Poss.: Possession
Class.: Classification

13. If you require further information and/or guidance in the preparation of this Affidavit, you may refer to the North Carolina General Statutes, Chapter 50 and to the Wake County Family Court Rules -- Domestic.

SCHEDULE I: MARITAL ASSETS

See Schedules A-H below for a description of items to be listed on each individual schedule. You must state your contention as to the classification of each item listed. M = marital property. SCHEDULE VI: CONTENTIONS FOR UNEQUAL DISTRIBUTION

PLAINTIFF'S CONTENTIONS FOR AN UNEQUAL DISTRIBUTION OF MARITAL PROPERTY

List below factors for the Court to consider in determining whether an equal division of marital property is not equitable. Plaintiff: Only complete this schedule if you are seeking an unequal division of marital property. You need to provide a detailed explanation as to each specific factor listed in the order in which they are listed.

FACTORS	PLAINTIFF'S DETAILED EXPLANATION
1. The income, property, and liabilities of each party at the time the division of property is to become effective.
2. Any obligation for support arising out of a prior marriage.
3. The duration of the marriage and the age and physical and mental health of both parties.
4. The need of a parent with custody of a child or children of the marriage to occupy or own the marital residence and to use or own its household effects.
5. The expectation of pension, retirement, or other deferred compensation rights that are not marital property.
6. Any equitable claim to, interest in, or direct or indirect contribution made to the acquisition of such marital property by the party not having title, including joint efforts or expenditures and contributions and services, or lack thereof, as a spouse, parent, wage earner, or homemaker.
7. Any direct or indirect contribution made by one spouse to help educate or develop the career of the other spouse.
8. Any direct contribution to an increase in the value of separate property which occurs during the course of the marriage.
9. The liquid or nonliquid character of all marital property and divisible property.
10. The difficulty of evaluating any component asset or any interest in a business, corporation or profession, and the economic desirability of retaining such asset or interest, intact and free from any claim or interference by the other party.

FACTORS	PLAINTIFF'S DETAILED EXPLANATION
11. The tax consequences to each party, including those federal and state tax consequences that would have been incurred if the marital and divisible property had been sold or liquidated on the date of valuation. The trial court may, however, in its discretion, consider whether or when such tax consequences are reasonably likely to occur in determining the equitable value deemed appropriate for this factor.
11.a. Acts of either party to maintain, preserve, develop, or expand; or to waste, neglect, devalue or convert the marital property or divisible property, or both, during the period after separation of the parties and before the time of distribution.
11.b. In the event of the death of either party prior to the entry of any order for the distribution of property made pursuant to this subsection: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a. Property passing to the surviving spouse by will or through intestacy due to the death of a spouse. b. Property held as tenants by the entirety or as joint tenants with rights of survivorship passing to the surviving spouse due to the death of a spouse. c. Property passing to the surviving spouse from life insurance, individual retirement accounts, pension or profit-sharing plans, any private or governmental retirement plan or annuity of which the decedent controlled the designation of beneficiary (excluding any benefits under the federal social security system), or any other retirement accounts or contracts, due to the death of a spouse. d. The surviving spouse's right to claim an "elective share" pursuant to G.S. 30-3.1 through G.S. 30-33, unless otherwise waived.
12. Any other factor which the court finds to be just and proper.
